

VISIT OF DELEGATES FROM MINISTRY OF FOREST AND ENVIRONMENT, GOVERNMENT OF NEPAL

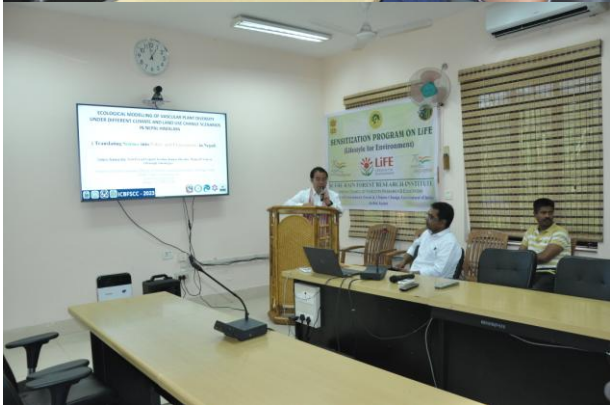

A team of high-level Delegates from Ministry of Forest and Environment, Government of Nepal consists of Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Rai, Province Secretary, (Joint Secretary) Ministry of Tourism, Forest & Environment Koshi Province, Biratnagar, Nepal; Dr. Jyoti Prasad Gajurel, Research Director, Golden Gate, International College (TU), Nepal; Mr. Dipak Lamichhane, Senior Garden Officer (Under Secretary), National Botanical Garden, Godawari, Lalitpur, Nepal; Mr. Rajesh Tamang, Assistant Scientific Officer, Ministry of Tourism, Forest & Environment, Koshi Province, Biratnagar, Nepal visited ICFRE-RFRI, Jorhat on 28th April, 2023.

Dr. R. K. Borah, Director, ICFRE-RFRI, welcomed the team with traditional 'Phulam Gamosa'. Dr. Dhruba J. Das, Scientist-F & Head, Forest Ecology and Climate Change Division delivered a presentation on various Research and Development activities carried out by this Institute. Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Rai, Province Secretary, (Joint Secretary) Ministry of Tourism, Forest & Environment Koshi Province, Nepal also delivered a presentation on "Ecological Modeling of Vascular Plant Diversity under different Climate and Land Use Change Scenarios in Nepal Himalaya". Scientists, Officers, Supporting Staff and Research Fellows of ICFRE-RFRI interacted with the Delegates.

The Delegates subsequently visited various field and laboratory activities including Bamboo Nursery, Bambusetum, Tissue Culture Laboratory, Bamboo Composite Centre, Vacuum Pressure Impregnation Unit, Bah Bithika etc.

Visit of High-level Delegates from Nepal Government 2023

GLIMPSES OF THE PROGRAMME

Visit of High-level Delegates from Nepal Government | 2023

